

CANYON

Slim External USB DVD writer CNR-DVDRW1W

Due to their small size, netbooks do not feature optical drive making it practically impossible for users to burn CDs or DVDs with their favorite pictures, documents or videos. Canyon's CNR-DVDRW1W is a light, compact and easy to use external DVD writer powered by USB 2.0 – The ideal accessory for netbook users who wish for more possibilities. It supports 8/12 cm CDs and DVDs, and features a storage compartment for its cable. The Nero burning software is included, as well as an additional USB cable to be used if more power is required. The CNR-DVDRW1W is offered in a stylish design with trendy patterns. It is also available in black (CNR-DVDRW1B).
